363® FOR LEADERS FACILITATOR REPORT

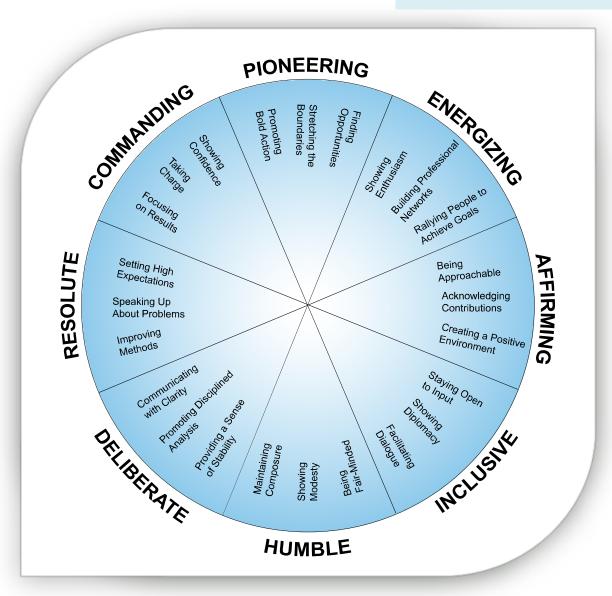

Everything DiSC 363® for Leaders focuses on the interpersonal aspects of leadership. The program improves self-awareness in key areas that will help people get better leadership outcomes.

Designed exclusively to use with the 363 for Leaders report, the Facilitator Report brings together 360° feedback to provide a composite overview of the group. Along with a group summary, the 363 Facilitator Report includes data by rater type and data by item (accompanied by the leader's name), and each leader's 363 graph.

The Everything DiSC 363 for Leaders model (pictured below) illustrates the Eight Approaches to Effective Leadership. Each of the approaches is comprised of three Practices or underlying components. Effective leaders tend to use a range of approaches.

About This Report

- The report provides group-level data on the eight approaches to leadership.
- Leaders are most likely to have strengths in areas that reflect their own styles.
- Group data is presented in graphs, collectively and with individuals' data identified.
- The group data will help leaders understand which approaches come most and least naturally to members of the group.

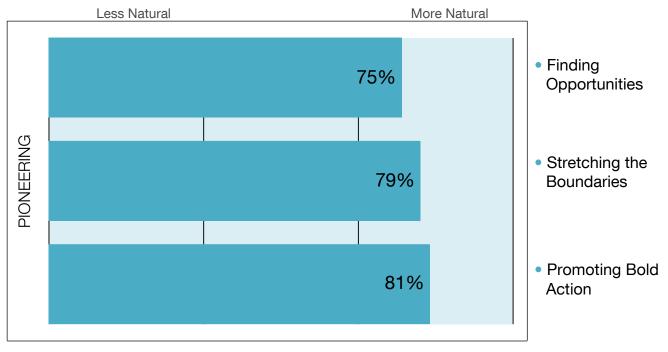

What comes naturally to this group?

For each of the three Pioneering practices, your group's ratings were compared against a normative sample based on the feedback from over 50,000 raters. As a result, a percentile score is displayed for each practice (located on the corresponding bar). This number indicates the percentage of leaders who scored at or below your group's average.

Overall Pioneering Percentile: 78%

Definition key

Pioneering: A pioneering leader encourages the group to think creatively about their options and take chances on new opportunities.

- Finding Opportunities: Pioneering leaders are often great at finding new opportunities and directions for the group, and others may admire their ability to uncover new possibilities.
- Stretching the Boundaries: Pioneering leaders challenge the group to push beyond their comfort zones, and others may appreciate that they help the group envision a new way of doing things.
- Promoting Bold Action: Pioneering leaders encourage people to take bold action, and others may appreciate that they're willing to take chances that could broaden the group's horizons.

ENERGIZING: GROUP SUMMARY

What comes naturally to this group?

For each of the three Energizing practices, your group's ratings were compared against a normative sample based on the feedback from over 50,000 raters. As a result, a percentile score is displayed for each practice (located on the corresponding bar). This number indicates the percentage of leaders who scored at or below your group's average.

Overall Energizing Percentile: 71%

Definition key

Energizing: An energizing leader builds enthusiasm for the group's goals and develops a wide network of professional connections.

- Showing Enthusiasm: Energizing leaders often have a contagious sense of enthusiasm, and others may appreciate that they create a fun, lively environment.
- Building Professional Networks: Energizing leaders create a large, influential social network, and others may admire their knack for connecting the group to resources and opportunities.
- Rallying People to Achieve Goals: Energizing leaders rally people around new goals, and others may appreciate their ability to bring people together around a vision for the future.

What comes naturally to this group?

For each of the three Affirming practices, your group's ratings were compared against a normative sample based on the feedback from over 50,000 raters. As a result, a percentile score is displayed for each practice (located on the corresponding bar). This number indicates the percentage of leaders who scored at or below your group's average.

Overall Affirming Percentile: 60%

Definition key

Affirming: An affirming leader is approachable and helps people feel good about their environment and their contributions.

- Being Approachable: Affirming leaders often come across as approachable, and others may feel comfortable going to them for help or advice.
- Acknowledging Contributions: Affirming leaders tend to focus on acknowledging the contributions of others, and this makes people feel that their efforts are valued.
- Creating a Positive Environment: Affirming leaders tend to be hopeful, and others probably appreciate that they create an encouraging, positive environment around them.

What comes naturally to this group?

For each of the three Inclusive practices, your group's ratings were compared against a normative sample based on the feedback from over 50,000 raters. As a result, a percentile score is displayed for each practice (located on the corresponding bar). This number indicates the percentage of leaders who scored at or below your group's average.

Overall Inclusive Percentile: 58%

Definition key

Inclusive: An inclusive leader gets a variety of people involved in the decision-making process and shows concern for their opinions and feelings.

- Staying Open to Input: Inclusive leaders show that they're open to input, so people may appreciate that their opinions are taken seriously.
- Showing Diplomacy: Inclusive leaders show diplomacy when communicating, and others may appreciate that they show concern for people's feelings.
- Facilitating Dialogue: Since inclusive leaders tend to create open dialogue, others may admire their ability to help people find common ground.

HUMBLE: GROUP SUMMARY

What comes naturally to this group?

For each of the three Humble practices, your group's ratings were compared against a normative sample based on the feedback from over 50,000 raters. As a result, a percentile score is displayed for each practice (located on the corresponding bar). This number indicates the percentage of leaders who scored at or below your group's average.

Overall Humble Percentile: 51%

Definition key

Humble: A humble leader maintains a modest, composed demeanor and can be relied upon to make decisions fairly.

- Maintaining Composure: Since humble leaders tend to maintain composure during stressful situations, people may be less worried about delivering bad news or unfavorable feedback.
- Showing Modesty: Humble leaders are usually quite modest, and people may appreciate that these leaders recognize their limitations and put others' needs above their own.
- Being Fair-Minded: Humble leaders strive to be fair in their decisions, and people may appreciate that these leaders don't let their biases or emotions sway them.

DELIBERATE: GROUP SUMMARY

What comes naturally to this group?

For each of the three Deliberate practices, your group's ratings were compared against a normative sample based on the feedback from over 50,000 raters. As a result, a percentile score is displayed for each practice (located on the corresponding bar). This number indicates the percentage of leaders who scored at or below your group's average.

Overall Deliberate Percentile: 34%

Definition key

Deliberate: A deliberate leader provides a sense of stability for the group by communicating clearly and ensuring that decisions are made carefully.

- Communicating with Clarity: Since deliberate leaders make a point of communicating with clarity, people don't have to worry about ambiguous or unclear messages.
- Promoting Disciplined Analysis: Deliberate leaders insist on conducting disciplined analyses before choosing a direction, so people often see them as good decision makers.
- Providing a Sense of Stability: Deliberate leaders strive to create a sense of stability for themselves and the people around them, and others may appreciate having a structure to follow.

RESOLUTE: GROUP SUMMARY

What comes naturally to this group?

For each of the three Resolute practices, your group's ratings were compared against a normative sample based on the feedback from over 50,000 raters. As a result, a percentile score is displayed for each practice (located on the corresponding bar). This number indicates the percentage of leaders who scored at or below your group's average.

Overall Resolute Percentile: 62%

Definition key

Resolute: A resolute leader creates high standards for the group and insists on using methods that maximize efficiency.

- Setting High Expectations: Since resolute leaders tend to set high expectations, others are likely to have confidence that the group will deliver top results.
- Speaking Up About Problems: Resolute leaders speak up when the group's processes aren't working, and others may appreciate that they don't let problems slip through the cracks.
- Improving Methods: Resolute leaders find ways to improve the group's methods, and others may appreciate how their practical, common-sense approach leads to greater efficiency.

COMMANDING: GROUP SUMMARY

What comes naturally to this group?

For each of the three Commanding practices, your group's ratings were compared against a normative sample based on the feedback from over 50,000 raters. As a result, a percentile score is displayed for each practice (located on the corresponding bar). This number indicates the percentage of leaders who scored at or below your group's average.

Overall Commanding Percentile: 52%

Definition key

Commanding: A commanding leader takes charge of situations with confidence and urges others to get results.

- Showing Confidence: Commanding leaders speak and act with conviction, so others are likely to feel assured and confident in these leaders' abilities.
- Taking Charge: Commanding leaders tend to step up and take charge when necessary, and people appreciate that they provide direction for the group.
- Focusing on Results: Since commanding leaders focus on results, people on their teams may see themselves as part of a productive, goal-oriented group.
